

Medicity Donates HIMSS Booth Furniture to Ronald McDonald House Charities of Greater Cincinnati

Ronald McDonald House Charities to use donation to furnish a newly-built wing at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center

Salt Lake City, UT, May 11, 2007—Medicity Inc. announced today that it has donated all furniture from its booth at the HIMSS09 Annual Conference & Exhibition to help the Ronald McDonald House Charities (RMHC) of Greater Cincinnati furnish a newly-built wing at the Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center. In support of the RMHC mission to create, find and support programs that directly improve the health and well-being of children, the non-profit organization contributed to the new wing's grand opening on April 26-27, 2009.

"It is an honor to assist the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Greater Cincinnati deliver a vital service to families of seriously ill children," said Kipp Lassetter, M.D., Medicity's CEO. "The vision of RMHC parallels Medicity's goal of enabling hospitals and health systems to enhance patient outcomes through information technology that improves clinician decision-making, resulting in better and safer care."

Medicity shipped more than $5,600 in IKEA furniture immediately after the conclusion of the HIMSS09 Annual Conference & Exhibition. The new furniture donation consists of one sofa, one coffee table, three bistro tables, one dining table, two lounge chairs and 20 swivel chairs.

"We appreciate Medicity's generous support. We will use the furniture in the library where families can enjoy relaxing on the sofa while reading a book, or sitting at the table working on laptops or surfing the Internet," said Carine de Lange, Director of Operations at the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Greater Cincinnati.
